

Benign Breast Tumor (Right Breast, Pending Paraffin Pathology) Diagnosis: Physical Examination: Physical Examination: Both breasts are symmetrical; the skin of both breasts shows no redness.swelling, ulceration, dimpling, or peau d'orange changes; both nipples are at the same height without inversion, deviation, or eczematous changes, and no old surgical scars are observed

Source Records

